Many people think the most important thing to put two people together is the CHEMISTRY. Some believe CHEMISTRY between people is the fate, and some identified CHEMISTRY as the physical attraction. I don't deny the power of either. But my observation about CHEMISTRY is the personality compatibility which influences the physical attraction. Some of us may have come across beautiful people, but couldn't feel any electricity. That is because some personalities are just not suitable, and some personalities even reject each other.

In the previous article, I explained four major personalities: 1. Mr Happy Man; 2. Mr Perfectionist; 3. Mr Leader; 4. "Yes" Men. Let's just take a look and see how CHEMISTRY displays in the personality compatibility situation.

By the law of nature : opposite attracts. Very often we can see couples, good friends have different, even opposite personalities. Among these four described personalities, two groups usually can feel the attraction soon as they meet: type one Happy Man with type two Mr Perfectionist and type three Mr Leader with type four Mr Yes man. Why is that? It is because opposites attract!

We know Mr Happy Man is someone who is excitable, full of energy, always laughing, mixing well, slow to be offended. That is what Mr Perfectionist are lack of. They are deep thinkers, trying to be perfect in every way, trying to plan for everything. Therefore their life can be more stressful. They need someone to cheer them up, to show them how to be happy. Meeting Mr Happy Man is like a fresh breath of air, refreshing, cheerful. On the other side, Mr Happy Man adores people who are calm, witty, which is what Mr Perfectionist can deliver. In a Happy Man's eye, they are just cool! If you put a cool man with a happy woman, the result can be almost certain: strongly attracted.

We also know Mr Leader is strong, influential, dynamic and bossy. Many people respect them, but don't like them. But this is not for Mr Yes Man who is completely the opposite: no drive, not motivated, laidback, peaceful. To Yes Man, the Leader is wonderful and adorable. His energy, confidence and determination are inspirational. If we put these two together, we can expect both feel comfortable with each other. They deliver what each other needs: one wants to lead, the other is willing to be led; one wants to influence, the other is willing to listen; one likes to express, the other likes to listen; one likes to control, the other doesn't oppose the controlling. If it happens to a man and a woman, they may find the match is made in heaven. In life, we often see these two personalities in couples and good friends.

However what will happen if we put two happy men together: both talk, no one listens; Or if we put two perfectionists together: both feel stressful and depressed after long length of deep conversations; or if we put two leaders together: fight, argue, both want to lead, no one obeys. Or if we put one Yes man and one Yes woman together, they could hardly have the enthusiasm to meet. By Eva Chen
